

December
January

2011
2012

Julianne Molloy-Bithony gave a wonderful demonstration at our December meeting. She was also the judge of the Holiday Show.

Read below for our latest Blog Posting...
(at www.WeymouthArtAssn.org)

December 3rd Member's Show and Meeting Update December 4, 2011 by Joan Donovan

The December meeting included the member's exhibits, the award ceremony and refreshments plus an invigorating painting demonstration by Julianne Molloy-Bithony.

The member's show had over 60 items exhibited in the form of oil, acrylics, watercolor, pen and ink, photography and mixed media on display at the Tuft's library. Awards were for presented the categories of oil painting, watercolor and mixed media. Award ribbons were presented by the President of the Weymouth Art Association Liz Boston.

Julianne Molloy-Bithony demonstrated her approach to oil painting using a focus on color. She provided insight into how she mixed color and how she decided where to place it on the painting to enhance the mood. She also added humor to the demonstration with use of the phrase "There are no rules!" and reminded us that we should paint for our pleasure and the enjoyment that others can receive from it.

Questions? Comments? Contact WAA President Liz Boston (781) 727-7802

Please note the February date has changed due to a scheduling conflict at the Library.

The new date for the next meeting will be:
Feb.11, 2012 at 2pm
Tufts Library

FRANTIC FRAMERS Since 1972
94 Franklin St. Quincy

20% OFF Custom Framing
With coupon. Excludes same day service. Not valid on prior purchases. May not be combined with any other offers.

FREE SAME DAY FRAMING SERVICE
www.FranticFramers.com 617-479-4352

Get your own Artist Website
Affordable & Easy!
Portfolios
Selling Art
blogging

Call Liz (781) 727-7802
www.LizBoston.com

Advertise with Us!
Place your ad in the Weymouth Art News!

Reach over 100 Artists/Members

(781) 727-7802
info@LizBoston.com

Next Meeting:

February 11th at 2pm

Meetings are held in the Jones Room at:

The Tufts Library

46 Broad St.

Weymouth, MA 02188

The February demonstration will be:

a winter Pastel Landscape by Denise Byrnes Graham

Artist Statement: The way late afternoon sun-light hits the bark of a gray tree and turns it red, the lushness of clouds, the calm of an overcast day...there is joy for me in witnessing all of this.

The beauty of the natural world is my inspiration to paint and put my interpretation to paper with pastel. I am fascinated by light, shadow, color, shape, texture, and reflection. Pastel is the medium I choose to capture the transitory mood of the moment and to record the luminosity of what I see.

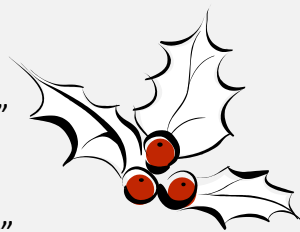

Denise has received numerous awards in juried shows, including first place for drawing and pastel at the South Shore Art Center's Festival on the common in 2006 for her painting, "September Sky". She was awarded the Ditto Editions digital print award for, "Field at Great Esker" at the national juried exhibit, for pastels only on Cape Cod 2011, at the Cultural Center of Cape Cod. She is a member of the Pastel Painters Society of Cape Cod, South Shore Art Center, North River Art Society, Weymouth Art Association, and a gallery member at the Russell Gallery of the Plymouth Guild.

Holiday Members Show Winners

Oil/Acrylic

- 1st – John Marshall Dyke – "Poppies"
- 2nd – Anet Paglierani – "Lilacs"
- 3rd – Lillian Koe – "The Sledders"
- hm – Claire Spano – "Winter Beauty"

Watercolor

- 1st – Cheryl Dunlap – "Childhood Christmas Miracles"
- 2nd – Elizabeth Trubia – "Morning Frost"
- 3rd – Margaret Gosselin – "The Mudders"
- hm – Juan Gill – "Worry Dolls"

Mixed Category (Pastel, Photo, Ink, Mixed Media, etc.)

- 1st – Zeid Velic – "Jewel Mill"
- 2nd – John Nutter – "Boughs of Snow"
- 3rd – Denise Graham – "Snow Day"
- hm – Rita Walsh – "Merry Christmas"

Massachusetts Cultural Council

The WAA is sponsored in part by a grant from the Weymouth Cultural Council, supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.